

Role Outline – Pride Stand Volunteer

In this exciting new role, you will either host an information stand at your local Pride event. You will be raising awareness of endometriosis and Endometriosis UK within LGBTQIA+ communities. You will be an integral part of ensuring everyone with endometriosis has access to support.

What will you do?

- Host an Endometriosis UK information stand
- Engage the public in conversation about our support offer
- Take and set up Endometriosis UK branded materials at stand e.g. tablecloth, light weight pop up banner, leaflets.
- Provide Endometriosis UK with event and volunteer experience feedback
- Act in line with our Volunteer policies and Code of Conduct

Who are we looking for?

No special qualifications are needed for this role. You will need to be:

- Confident speaking with the public
- Comfortable in loud and crowded areas
- Able to communicate and empathise with others who have different identities, backgrounds and life experiences
- In support of Endometriosis UK's mission and commitment to Equality, Diversity and Inclusion
- Aged 16 or over, and have photo ID

We value diversity. Research shows that people from marginalised communities are more likely to experience poor healthcare. They are also underrepresented within the endometriosis community and our pool of volunteers. We encourage applications from people from marginalised communities, including people who are LGBTQIA+ and from ethnic minorities.

When and Where?

We will be here:

- Sat 25th May Grampian Pride
- Sat 22nd Jun Cymru Pride Day 1
- Sun 23rd Jun Cymru Pride Day 2
